Bank is Trustee For Indian Fund

First Security Bank of Utah of Salt Lake City has been named as trustee to protect the rights of minors, incompetent persons or those judged in need of assistance in the mixed blood members of the Ute Indian Tribe of Uintah Ouray reservation

Congress has provided for the termination of Federal supervision over the trust and restricted property of the members

All funds belonging to beneficiaries were transferred to this bank August 17 Certificates of stock also will be transferred to the bank